PRESS RELEASE

Subject: Lee A. Hughes
"Developer of the Year"
By Greater Fort Worth Builders Association
Contact: 817-439-3334

Maverick Homes' CEO, Lee A. Hughes, was named "Developer of the Year" for 2009 by the Greater Fort Worth Builders Association. The award was bestowed on Hughes at the association's annual black tie gala October 10, 2009. The evening's festivities included installation of Shane Golden as incoming President along with industry icons J.B. Sandlin, Ron Formby, Herman Smith and Gary Dollgener being placed in the Greater Fort Worth Builders Association Housing Hall of Honor. Bob Madeja was honored as the groups Builder of the Year for 2009.

Hughes, in business since 1987, was also installed as a Vice-President of the Builders Association as part of the ceremony. Hughes also serves as co-chairman of the Association's Governmental Affairs committee, as well as a trustee for the group's political action committee, Hammer and Nails. Maverick Homes continues to focus on one acre lot development in Tarrant and Parker Counties.

Maverick Homes carries the prestigious "Certified Green Professional" designation from The National Home Builders Association and is a member of the Green Built Texas program. Maverick Homes has also been given the designation of "Platinum Builder" by StrucSure Home Warranty.
